Study Guide: Verb Tenses

To be · There is/are · Present and Past Simple · Present and Past Continuous. Four one-hour study blocks to do on your own.

i HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Welcome! You can do this

While your teacher is away, you will complete 4 study blocks. Each block is equal to one class of 60 minutes. Do one block, rest, and then continue another day. Small steps every few days work better than one long session.

STEP	WHAT YOU DO	TIME
1 Theory	Read the explanation. Say the examples out loud.	20 min
2 Reading	Read a short text, then answer the questions.	10 min
3 Listening	Listen (or read aloud), then answer the questions.	10 min
4 Practice	Do 4 or 5 exercises. Do not look at the answers.	20 min

BLOCK	TOPIC	SUGGESTED DAY (IN 15 DAYS)
1	To be + There is / There are	Days 2–3
2	Present Simple + Past Simple	Days 5–6
3	Present Continuous + Past Continuous	Days 9–10
4	Putting it all together (review of all tenses)	Days 13–14

Rules of the game

1. Write your own answers in every box. Your work is saved on this device.
2. Check the Answer Key at the very end of the guide only after you finish a block.
3. Correct your mistakes with a different colour or in the box, and try to understand why you were wrong.
4. When you finish, press Copy my answers at the end and send them to your teacher.

No audio? For every listening activity you can read the script aloud (after trying to listen), or paste it into a text-to-speech tool: the "Read aloud" feature of your browser, the speaker button in Google Translate, or the "Speak" function on your phone. Choose an English voice.

1 BLOCK 1 about 60 min

To Be + There is / There are

Describe people, places and things: who you are, where things are and what exists.

1 Theory

1. The verb to be

	PRESENT	PAST
+	I am (I'm) · you are (you're) · he/she/it is (he's) · we/you/they are	I/he/she/it was · you/we/they were
–	I'm not · you aren't · he/she/it isn't · we/you/they aren't	I/he/she/it wasn't · you/we/they weren't
?	Am I...? Are you...? Is he/she/it...?	Was I/he/she/it...? Were you/we/they...?

Short answers: Are you tired? → Yes, I am. / No, I'm not. (We never say "Yes, I'm".)

When do we use to be?

- Identity, job, nationality: "I'm a nurse." "She's Brazilian."
- Age: "He is thirty (years old)." (English uses be, not have.)
- Feelings and states: "We're tired." "I was nervous yesterday."
- Description: "The flat is bright and the kitchen is small."
- Location: "The keys are on the table." "Where were you last night?"
- Time and weather: "It's 8 o'clock." "It was cold on Monday."

2. There is / There are

We use there is / there are to say that something exists or is in a place. We often use it to introduce something new.

	PRESENT	PAST
+ singular / uncountable	There is (there's) a park. · There is some water.	There was a party.
+ plural	There are two bedrooms.	There were three people.
–	There isn't a cinema. · There aren't any shops.	There wasn't a lift. · There weren't any windows.
?	Is there a bank near here? · Are there any restaurants?	Was there a problem? · Were there any tickets?

Short answers: Is there a lift? → Yes, there is. / No, there isn't. · Are there any shops? → Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.

Some / any / a lot of: some in positive sentences ("There are some books"), any in negatives and questions ("There aren't any books. Are there any books?"), a lot of for large quantities. How many (countable) / how much (uncountable): "How many bedrooms are there?" "How much milk is there?"

3. Contrast: It is vs There is

There is... introduces something new.
"There is a park near my house."

It is... describes something we already know.
"It is big and very green."

Dica Brasil: "Tem uma padaria aqui perto" is There is a bakery near here (not "Have a bakery"). We also say "My house has a garden" (possession) = "There is a garden at my house" (existence).

4. Common mistakes

✘ WRONG	✔ RIGHT
~~I have 25 years.~~	I'm 25 (years old).
~~Have a park near my house.~~	There is a park near my house.
~~There is three chairs.~~	There are three chairs.
~~Is a cat in the garden?~~	Is there a cat in the garden?
~~There are some milk.~~	There is some milk. (uncountable)
~~Are you tired? Yes, I'm.~~	Yes, I am.

2 Reading: Welcome to My Neighbourhood

What to do

1. Read the text once without stopping. Tap the highlighted words to see how the grammar works.
2. Read it again, underline the verbs from this block, and listen to the audio (optional).
3. Answer the questions in full sentences.

🎧 Listen to the text (optional) (audio in the web version; or read the script aloud)

My name is Marta, and I am a nurse. I'm 29 years old and I'm from Porto Alegre, but now I live in a small apartment in São Paulo. My neighbourhood is quiet and friendly. There is a bakery on the corner, and there are two supermarkets near my building. There isn't a cinema, but there is a big park with a lake. On Sundays, there are always many families there. Ten years ago, the neighbourhood was very different. There weren't any cafés and the streets were dirty. Now there are lots of shops and the people are happier. My favourite place is the library. It's old, but it's beautiful, and the librarians are very kind. Are there places like this where you live?

R Reading questions

1 Where does Marta live now?

2 Is there a cinema in her neighbourhood?

3 What was different ten years ago?

4 What is Marta's favourite place and why?

3 Listening: Lisa's new apartment

Tom asks Lisa about her new home.

What to do

1. Read the questions first. Then press play and listen without reading the script.
2. Listen again and answer the questions.
3. Open the script and check. Then read it aloud to practise your pronunciation.

🎧 Lisa's new apartment (audio in the web version; or read the script aloud)

No audio? Ask a friend to read the script aloud, read it aloud yourself, or paste it into a text-to-speech tool (see the start of this guide).

L Listening questions

1 How many bedrooms are there in Lisa's apartment?

2 Is there a dishwasher?

3 What is near Lisa's building?

4 What was there on the roof last week?

5 What was wrong with her old studio?

▼ Show the script (after you listen)

Tom: Hi Lisa! How's your new apartment?
Lisa: It's great! It's small, but it's very bright. There are two bedrooms and a balcony.
Tom: Is there a washing machine?
Lisa: Yes, there is, but there isn't a dishwasher.
Tom: Are there any shops nearby?
Lisa: Yes! There's a supermarket and there are three restaurants on my street.
Tom: And how are the neighbours?
Lisa: They're really nice. Last week there was a party on the roof, and everyone was friendly.
Tom: That sounds wonderful. Where were you before this apartment?
Lisa: I was in a tiny studio. There weren't any windows in the kitchen!

4 Practice

What to do

1. Do the exercises in order. Do not look at the answers.

2. Write something in every box, even if you are not sure.

3. When you finish, go to the Answer Key at the end and correct your work.

A Choose the correct option.

1 She _____ from Chile. — a am | b is | c are

2 There _____ two windows in the kitchen. — a is | b are | c have

3 _____ there a bank near here? — a Is | b Are | c Does

4 The keys _____ on the table yesterday. — a was | b were | c are

5 There _____ any milk in the fridge. — a isn't | b aren't | c hasn't

6 I _____ 30 years old. — a have | b am | c has

B Complete the sentences with is, are, was, were or a there form.

1 _____ a lot of traffic in my city every morning.

2 My parents _____ at home last night.

3 _____ twelve students in my class.

4 Ten years ago, _____ any cafés in this street.

5 _____ a bakery near your house?

6 The film _____ very long, so I fell asleep.

C Find the mistake and write the correct sentence.

1. ~~I have 20 years old.~~
   Write the correct sentence

2. ~~Have a bakery near my house.~~
   Write the correct sentence

3. ~~There is three chairs in the room.~~
   Write the correct sentence

4. ~~Is a cat in the garden?~~
   Write the correct sentence

5. ~~Are you a student? Yes, I'm.~~
   Write the correct sentence

D Your turn: write 1 to 3 sentences for each.

1. Describe your neighbourhood. What is there? What isn't there?

2. Where were you yesterday at 8 pm? How were you?

3. Describe your bedroom: say five things that there are in it.

4. How was your city ten years ago? Use there was / there were.

Finished? Tick the four boxes at the top of this block and check the Answer Key.

2 BLOCK 2 about 60 min

Present Simple + Past Simple

Talk about routines, facts and finished events: now, yesterday and in the past.

1 Theory

1. Present Simple

	FORM	EXAMPLE
+	I/you/we/they work · he/she/it works	She works in a hospital.
–	don't / doesn't + base verb	He doesn't like fish.
?	Do / Does + subject + base verb	Does she work here?

Spelling of he/she/it: work → works · go → goes · watch → watches · study → studies · play → plays (vowel + y).

Use it for…

- Habits and routines: "I take the bus every day."
- Facts and permanent situations: "Water boils at 100°C." "She lives in Recife."
- Timetables: "The train leaves at 7:15."
- States (know, like, want, need): "I know the answer."

Frequency adverbs: always, usually, often, sometimes, rarely, never. They go before the main verb and after be: "I usually walk" · "She is always late."

2. Past Simple

	FORM	EXAMPLE
+	verb + -ed (regular) or irregular form	I worked / I went.
–	didn't + base verb	I didn't go.
?	Did + subject + base verb	Did you see it?

Regular spelling: work → worked · live → lived · study → studied · stop → stopped. Pronunciation of -ed: /t/ in worked, /d/ in played, /ɪd/ in wanted.

COMMON IRREGULAR VERBS
be → was/were	go → went	have → had	do → did	see → saw	eat → ate drink → drank	buy → bought	take → took	make → made	come → came	get → got give → gave	write → wrote	say → said	meet → met	leave → left	find → found

Use it for…

- Finished actions at a definite time: "I saw that film last night."
- A sequence of events (a story): "I woke up, had coffee and left."

- Past habits or states that stopped: "When I was a child, I played football every day."

Time expressions: yesterday, last night / week / year, two days ago, in 2019, when I was young.

3. Contrast: Present Simple vs Past Simple

Present (now, always)
I work in a bank.
She doesn't eat meat.
Do you live here?

Past (finished)
I worked in a bank for five years.
She didn't eat meat last night.
Did you live here in 2020?

Golden rule: after do / does / did / don't / doesn't / didn't the main verb is always in the base form: "Did she go?" (not "Did she went?").

4. Common mistakes

✘ WRONG	✔ RIGHT
~~She don't like coffee.~~	She doesn't like coffee.
~~Did you went to school?~~	Did you go to school?
~~I didn't saw the film.~~	I didn't see the film.
~~He go to work by bus.~~	He goes to work by bus.
~~Yesterday I am tired.~~	Yesterday I was tired.
~~She works yesterday.~~	She worked yesterday.

2 Reading: A Day in the Life: Then and Now

What to do

1. Read the text once without stopping. Tap the highlighted words to see how the grammar works.
2. Read it again, underline the verbs from this block, and listen to the audio (optional).

3. Answer the questions in full sentences.

🎧 Listen to the text (optional) (audio in the web version; or read the script aloud)

Hi, I'm Leo and I work as a graphic designer. Every weekday I wake up at 6:30, have a quick breakfast and take the bus to the office. I usually start work at 8:00, and I never skip lunch. In the evening I go to the gym or I watch a series. At weekends I don't work, so I often see my friends. Last year my routine was very different. I worked from home and I didn't leave the house much. I woke up late, I ate in front of the computer and I felt tired all the time. Then, in March, I found a new job in a bigger company. My boss gave me an interesting project and I moved to a flat near the office. It changed my life! I met new people, I learned new skills and I started to run in the park. Does my life sound busy? Maybe, but I love it.

R Reading questions

1 What time does Leo wake up on weekdays?

2 Does he work at weekends?

3 What was Leo's routine like last year?

4 Why did his life change?

3 Listening: My weekend

Rita talks about her weekends: what she usually does and what she did last Saturday.

What to do

1. Read the questions first. Then press play and listen without reading the script.
2. Listen again and answer the questions.

3. Open the script and check. Then read it aloud to practise your pronunciation.

🎧 My weekend (audio in the web version; or read the script aloud)

No audio? Ask a friend to read the script aloud, read it aloud yourself, or paste it into a text-to-speech tool (see the start of this guide).

L Listening questions

1 True or false? Rita usually wakes up early on Saturdays.

2 True or false? Last Saturday she went to the coast by train.

3 True or false? She took her phone to the beach.

4 What did she eat in the evening?

5 Who does she visit on Sundays?

▼ Show the script (after you listen)

Hi everyone! I'm Rita and today I want to talk about my weekend. On Saturdays I usually wake up late and I don't cook breakfast. I go to the market and I buy fruit and bread. Last Saturday, however, I did something different. I woke up at six, I took the train to the coast and I spent the whole day on the beach. I didn't take my phone, so nobody called me! In the evening I met my cousins and we ate fish at a small restaurant. On Sundays I always visit my grandmother. She lives near the park and she makes great coffee. Yesterday she told me an old story about her childhood. I loved it.

4 Practice

What to do

1. Do the exercises in order. Do not look at the answers.
2. Write something in every box, even if you are not sure.
3. When you finish, go to the Answer Key at the end and correct your work.

A Choose the correct option.

1. She _____ coffee every morning. — a drink / b drinks / c drinking
2. He _____ to the gym yesterday. — a go / b goes / c went
3. _____ you like pizza? — a Do / b Does / c Did
4. I didn't _____ the film. — a see / b saw / c seen
5. They _____ in London in 2019. — a live / b lived / c lives
6. What time _____ the train leave? (timetable) — a do / b does / c did

B Write the correct form of the verb in brackets, or the missing word.

1. She _____ (work) in a hospital. She loves it.
2. Yesterday we _____ (watch) a great film.
3. He _____ (not / like) fish, so he never orders it.
4. _____ you go to the party last Saturday?
5. I _____ (buy) these shoes two weeks ago.
6. What time _____ the shop open on Sundays?
7. They _____ (not / see) the news yesterday.
8. My sister _____ (study) English at night.

C Transform the sentences as shown.

1. ~~He plays football on Saturdays. (negative)~~
   Write the correct sentence

2. ~~She lives in Recife. (question)~~
   Write the correct sentence

3. ~~We visited our grandparents. (negative)~~
   Write the correct sentence

4. ~~They went to the cinema. (question)~~
   Write the correct sentence

5. ~~I eat breakfast at seven. (past)~~
   Write the correct sentence

D Your turn: write 2 or 3 sentences for each.

1. Describe your daily routine on a weekday.

2. What did you do last weekend?

3. Tell me about your first job or your first day at school.

4. Name something you never do, and something you did for the first time last year.

Finished? Tick the four boxes at the top of this block and check the Answer Key.

3 BLOCK 3 about 60 min

Present Continuous + Past Continuous

Describe actions in progress: what is happening now and what was happening in the past.

1 Theory

1. Present Continuous

	FORM	EXAMPLE
+	am / is / are + verb-ing	She is cooking dinner.
–	am not / isn't / aren't + verb-ing	They aren't working today.
?	Am / Is / Are + subject + verb-ing?	What are you doing?

-ing spelling: work → working · make → making · run → running · lie → lying · study → studying.

Use it for...

- Actions happening now: "Be quiet! The baby is sleeping."
- Temporary situations (around now): "This week I'm working from home."
- Changing situations: "Prices are rising."
- Future arrangements: "I'm meeting Julia at 7 tonight."
- Annoying habits with always: "He is always losing his keys!"

Time expressions: now, right now, at the moment, today, this week, currently.

Stative verbs (know, like, love, hate, want, need, believe, understand, prefer, have for possession) are not normally used in the continuous: "I know the answer" (not "I'm knowing"). But "I'm having lunch" is fine (action).

Present Simple vs Present Continuous

PRESENT SIMPLE	PRESENT CONTINUOUS
I drink coffee every morning. (habit)	I'm drinking coffee now. (action in progress)
She lives in Recife. (permanent)	She's living with her sister this month. (temporary)

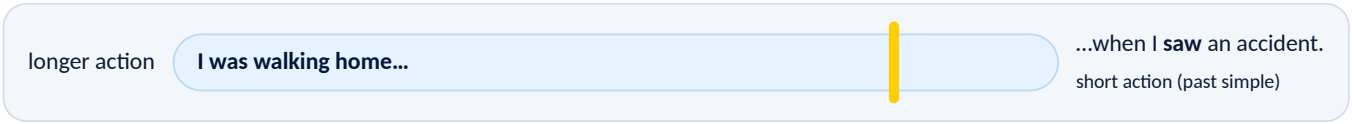

2. Past Continuous

	FORM	EXAMPLE
+	was / were + verb-ing	I was cooking.
–	wasn't / weren't + verb-ing	They weren't listening.
?	Was / Were + subject + verb-ing?	Where were you going?

Use it for…

- An action in progress at a specific moment in the past: "At 8 pm yesterday I was cooking."
- The background of a story: "It was raining and people were running."
- A longer action interrupted by a shorter one: "I was walking home when I saw an accident."
- Two actions at the same time: "While I was cooking, he was watching TV."

3. Contrast: Past Simple vs Past Continuous

Past Simple = a complete event.
"I read the book." (I finished it.)
"When I arrived, they left." (first I arrived, then they left)

Past Continuous = an action in progress.
"I was reading the book." (in the middle of it)
"When I arrived, they were having lunch." (they were already eating)

When / While: while + past continuous (a long action): "While I was walking…" · when + past simple (a short event): "…when it started to rain."

4. Common mistakes

✘ WRONG	✔ RIGHT
~~I was go to work.~~	I was going to work.
~~I'm knowing the answer.~~	I know the answer.
~~He is work now.~~	He is working now.
~~While I walked, I was seeing a fox.~~	While I was walking, I saw a fox.
~~When I was arriving, they ate.~~	When I arrived, they were eating.

2 Reading: A Strange Evening

What to do

1. Read the text once without stopping. Tap the highlighted words to see how the grammar works.
2. Read it again, underline the verbs from this block, and listen to the audio (optional).

3. Answer the questions in full sentences.

🎧 Listen to the text (optional) (audio in the web version; or read the script aloud)

Last Friday I was walking home from work when it started to rain. I was carrying my laptop, but I didn't have an umbrella, so I was running to the bus stop. While I was waiting for the bus, I noticed an old man. He was sitting alone on a bench and he was holding a small cat. The cat was shaking because it was cold. I took off my jacket and put it over the cat. The man smiled and said, "Thank you. I'm waiting for my daughter. She's coming to pick us up." A few minutes later, a car stopped and a young woman got out. She was laughing and crying at the same time. "Dad! Why are you sitting here in the rain? We're looking for you everywhere!" When I finally got on the bus, I was wet, but I was happy.

R Reading questions

1 What was the writer doing when it started to rain?

2 What was the old man holding?

3 Why was the cat shaking?

4 Who was the old man waiting for?

3 Listening: What were you doing?

A police officer asks Mr Lopes about last night.

What to do

1. Read the questions first. Then press play and listen without reading the script.
2. Listen again and answer the questions.

3. Open the script and check. Then read it aloud to practise your pronunciation.

🎧 What were you doing? (audio in the web version; or read the script aloud)

No audio? Ask a friend to read the script aloud, read it aloud yourself, or paste it into a text-to-speech tool (see the start of this guide).

L Listening questions

1 Where was Mr Lopes at nine o'clock?

2 What was he doing?

3 What was his sister doing?

4 What did they hear while they were eating?

5 What were the two men doing?

6 What is Mr Lopes doing this week?

▼ Show the script (after you listen)

Officer: Good morning, Mr Lopes. Where were you last night at nine o'clock?
Mr Lopes: I was at home. I was cooking dinner.
Officer: Was anyone with you?

Mr Lopes: Yes, my sister was watching TV in the living room while I was cooking.
Officer: Did you hear anything strange?
Mr Lopes: Yes. While we were eating, we heard a loud noise outside. I looked out of the window and I saw two men. They were running down the street.
Officer: What were they carrying?
Mr Lopes: I don't know. It was dark and it was raining.
Officer: Thank you. Are you working this week?
Mr Lopes: Yes, I'm working from home, so I'm here all day.

4 Practice

What to do

1. Do the exercises in order. Do not look at the answers.

4 BLOCK 4 about 60 min

Putting It All Together

Choose the right tense every time: review, contrast and free practice with everything you learned.

1 Theory

1. Which tense? A decision guide

ASK YOURSELF…	USE…	SIGNAL WORDS	EXAMPLE
Who/what is it? Where is it? How is it?	To be	age, job, place, feeling	She is a doctor. They were late.
Does it exist? Is it in a place?	There is / are / was / were	some, any, a lot of	There are three parks.
Is it a habit, a fact or a state?	Present Simple	every day, usually, never	I work in a bank.
Is it happening now, or around now?	Present Continuous	now, at the moment, this week	I'm working from home.
Did it finish in the past?	Past Simple	yesterday, last week, ago	I worked there in 2019.
Was it in progress at a past moment, or is it the background?	Past Continuous	at 8 pm, while, when	I was working when you called.

2. The same verb, six meanings

Present Simple
I work in a bank.
my job, in general

Present Continuous
I'm working now.
at this moment

Past Simple
I worked there for five years.
finished

Past Continuous
I was working when you called.
in progress, interrupted

To be
It was a long day. I'm tired.
states and descriptions

There is / was
There was a lot of work. There is a deadline.
what exists

3. Five-second checklist before you speak or write

1. Is the action finished or in progress? (simple or continuous)
2. Is it now or past? Look for time words.
3. Is it a state (know, like, want)? Then avoid the continuous.
4. After do / does / did, use the base verb.

5. Are you saying something exists? Use there is / there are, not "have".

Dica Brasil: in English the subject is always necessary ("It's raining", "There is a problem") and the verb must agree: she goes, they were, there are.

2 Reading: Greetings from Lisbon

What to do

1. Read the text once without stopping. Tap the highlighted words to see how the grammar works.
2. Read it again, underline the verbs from this block, and listen to the audio (optional).
3. Answer the questions in full sentences.

🎧 Listen to the text (optional) (audio in the web version; or read the script aloud)

Hi Carla! Greetings from Lisbon! I'm writing this message from a small café near the river. It's sunny and there are a lot of tourists. Yesterday we visited the castle. We were taking photos when it started to rain, so we ran into a museum. There was an interesting exhibition about the history of the city. I usually don't like museums, but I really enjoyed this one. At the moment, my friends are shopping, but I'm drinking coffee and writing to you. Tomorrow we're taking a train to Porto. Do you want to come? Write soon! Marco.

R Reading questions

1 Where is Marco now?

2 What were they doing when it started to rain?

3 Does Marco usually like museums?

4 What are they doing tomorrow?

▼ Show the script (after you listen)

Hi Marta, it's Pedro. I'm calling from the airport. My flight is delayed, so I'm sitting in a café and drinking a very bad coffee. There are a lot of people here, and the line is huge! Yesterday I was packing my suitcase when I realised that I didn't have my passport. I looked everywhere. Finally, I found it in my jacket pocket! I usually don't forget things, but this week I'm really tired because I'm working long hours. Anyway, I'm landing in Madrid at six. Can you pick me up? There's a bus, but I don't want to take it. Call me back! Thanks.
